Program Information

On Saturday, October 12th, OCPA will welcome undergraduate, post-baccalaureate, and graduate students interested in the field of Student Affairs to the Careers in Student Affairs Conference at Capital University, which will center on the theme "A Brighter Future in Student Affairs".

The conference will afford attendees the opportunity to learn about the profession of Student Affairs, explore the numerous functional areas within Student Affairs, develop skills necessary to enter the field and be introduced to some of the historical and contemporary aims of higher education as a profession.

The following form is designed for those interested in submitting a Program Proposal for the 2019 OCPA Careers in Student Affairs Conference. For full consideration, all program proposals must be submitted by Friday, September 6th, 2019.
